

Refugee Crisis INGO List.

Save the Children have teams working across Europe and in the countries children are fleeing from, to provide aid and support <http://www.savethechildren.org.uk/about-us/emergencies/child-refugee-crisis-appeal>

Médicins sans Frontières (Doctors without Borders) is working throughout Europe. Find out more about their work & how to donate here: <http://www.msf.org.uk/european-refugee-crisis>

Doctors of the World is meeting the needs of refugees on Greek islands as well as in Turkey, Lebanon and Jordan, and through clinics in nine European countries including France, Germany and the UK. They are the only charity providing medical help on the ground in Calais. <https://doctorsoftheworld.org.uk/pages/refugee-crisis>

Oxfam is working in Lebanon, Jordan & Syria. Details of their emergency response operations here: <https://www.oxfam.org.uk/what-we-do/emergency-response/syria-crisis>

British Red Cross volunteers across Europe are working around the clock to support hundreds of thousands of refugees as they attempt to reach safety. From Turkey to Hungary, Greece to the UK – the Red Cross is striving to support people who flee war and persecution. <http://www.redcross.org.uk/RefugeeCrisisHero>

ActionAid has been working with Syrian refugees in Jordan and Lebanon since 2013. We have already supported over 90,000 people in the region with clothing and other urgently needed supplies. <http://www.actionaid.org.uk/refugee-emergency-appeal>

UNHCR A humanitarian emergency is unfolding right now across Europe. UNHCR is on the ground providing life-saving protection but they need your help. http://donate.unhcr.org/gbr/europe-crisis#_ga=1.251991497.1772704261.1431088868

UNICEF is one of the few organisations working inside Syria, as well as delivering humanitarian aid across the region. With no end to the conflict in sight, they are focusing on strengthening infrastructures such as water and power systems. <http://www.unicef.org.uk/landing-pages/donate-syria/>

Islamic Relief is distributing food and medicines deep inside Syria, and helping hundreds of thousands of refugees in Jordan, Lebanon and Iraq as well as Syrian refugees fleeing across the Mediterranean. <http://www.islamic-relief.org.uk/current-appeals/syria-appeal/>

Christian Aid is working with churches and other agencies in supporting humanitarian efforts taking place in Europe and the Middle East. <https://donate.christianaid.org.uk/refugees>

Calaid is a newly formed group of volunteers collecting urgently needed donations for those living in the Calais refugee camps. <http://www.calaid.co.uk/>